

The no call list in Indiana needs to be held strong the family dinner time and private time needed in today's world cannot be explained and did away with. This is the best thing the state a federal govt has done for us as citizens in years. Don't let big business take away our rights and privacy. The phone not ringing every two minutes is so disturbing to the inner peace that we try to have in the home. Please do not take our privacy away.